

“The land flourished because it was fed from so many sources-- because it was nourished by so many cultures and traditions and peoples.”

— Lyndon B. Johnson

St. George Hellenic Benefit Society of Tsamantas is hosting the Finding Your Roots in the Global Village Seminar at the Grecian Festival June 6-8, 2014.

Dr Dimitrios KONSTADAKOPULOS, Senior Lecturer at Cardiff Metropolitan University in the United Kingdom will sign and discuss his new book, From Pax Ottomanica to Pax Europea: The Growth and Decline of a Greek Village's Micro-Economy. His book will be available for purchase.

St. George Society is also accepting orders for its new publication, Tales, rituals and songs: Exploring the Unknown Popular Culture of a Greek Mountain Village by Nikolaos Nitsos, translated into English by Panayiotis League, Instructor of Modern Greek Studies at Hellenic College. The book, an ethnographic study of the culture of the village of Tsamantas written in 1920, will be available in the fall, 2014 from the Hellenic College Press.

St. George Society is also making available limited copies of its 2010 publication, 100 Years in America: Tsamantas (Greece) – Worcester, MA (USA) 1908-2008, Historical Determinants and Images of the Identity and Culture of Diasporas from Southwestern Europe by Dr. Dimitrios Konstadakopulos and Soterios Zoulas.
